Name _____ Date _____ Block _____

AP World History Reading Guide 3e

Mrs. Matthews and Mr. Thompson Bulliet, et al: pgs 133-138

Land-Based Empires and Their Governance (finishing)

Guiding Questions:

- How did greater political centralization enable early modern monarchs to exert increased influence over the economy, religion and society?
- How did religious and political differences lead to the fragmentation of the Holy Roman Empire? How were Spain and France able to achieve greater centralization and religious unity?
- Contrast the royal policies in France and England during this time.

Key Terms: Habsburg family, Ottomans, autonomy, unified national structure, religion, the bourgeoisie, French Wars of Religion, Bourbon monarchs, absolutism, Louis XIV, royal grandeur, court, checks and balances, John Locke, divine right, law

Early Modern Europe's Land Empires
The Holy Roman Empire	Habsburg's Spain
The Rise of Absolutist France
The Most Absolute Monarch	The Palace of Versailles	A Very Different View on Monarchy
Conclusion

AP World History Reading Guide 3e

Mrs. Matthews and Mr. Thompson Bulliet, et al: pgs 143-148

Belief Systems in the Land Empires

Guiding Questions:

- How did outrage by corrupt church practices lead to reformers like Luther and Calvin challenging papal authority and traditional Catholic theology?
- How did outrage by corrupt church practices lead to reformers like Luther and Calvin challenging papal authority and traditional Catholic theology?
- Why did the Catholic Church launch a Counter-Reformation?
- How did the desire to enforce orthodoxy lead both Protestants and Catholics to sanction widespread witch-hunts?

Key Terms: theological controversies, long and violent wars, careful observation of the physical universe and a reliance on evidence, challenge, papacy, intellectual authority, Renaissance, Saint Peter's Basilica in Rome, indulgences, Martin Luther, object, printing press, Germans, predestined, male dominance, celibate priests, supremacy of the pope, Jesuits, Catholic Reformation, "wars of religion", Ottoman Empire, the low countries, bullion, Spanish Armada, Dutch Independence, French Wars of Religion, Henry VIII, annulment, navy, Anglican Church, English Puritans, witch-hunts, magic, courts, women, judicial torture, the Spanish Inquisition, egalitarian, Orthodox Russia

The Protestant Reformation and Its Repercussions

The Early Reformation

The State of the Papacy in 1500	The Pope

A Theological Challenge	Debating Church Practice	Beginning of the Protestant Reformation

John Calvin and Calvinism	Reasons for Success and CCOT

The Counter-Reformation and the Politics of Religion

A Meeting to Reaffirm Beliefs and Practices	A New Order Is Established	An Age of Conflict

The Spanish Crown Makes a Huge Mistake	Edict of Nantes in France

Creation of the Church of England	Increased Monarchal Power and More Change

Local Religion, Traditional Culture, and Witch Hunts (take notes over entire section below)

Protestant North and Catholic South	Pre-Christian Beliefs	Real Life Implications Endure

Hysteria	An Extraordinary Fear of Witches	Can't Make This Up

Varying Effects By State	Rising Social Tensions, Rural Poverty and Environmental Crisis